

Sawtooth Wilderness vs Boulder White Cloud Mountains Regulations

	SAWTOOTH WILDERNESS	BOULDER WHITE CLOUD MOUNTAINS
PERMIT	Self-issue at trailhead for groups under 8 Obtain at Forest Service office for groups greater than 8 Carried by 1 person per group	No permit required - sign in at sign in box
GROUP NUMBERS	May 1 – Nov 30: 12 people 14 stock Dec 1 – April 30: 20 people 14 stock	20 people 25 stock
STOCK
CONTAINMENT	100 feet from springs, lakes, streams In campsites ONLY to (un)load	100 feet from springs, lakes, streams
GRAZING	200 yards from lake shores
FEED	East Side: NO grazing, pelletized feed only West Side: Certified Noxious Weed Free	Certified Noxious Weed Free
STOCK NOT ALLOWED	Goat Creek drainage Overnight at Edith Lake
DOGS	July 1 – Labor Day: Dogs leashed on trails
CAMPING	100 feet from trails, lakes, streams	100 feet from trails, lakes, streams
FIRE RESTRICTIONS	ALL campfires in fire pan or fire blanket Fires NOT allowed in: Alice/Twin Lakes drainage Toxaway/Farley Lakes drainage Goat Creek drainage Alpine Creek drainage Fires must be 200 yards from the following lakes: Sawtooth, Goat, Alpine (near Iron Creek), Alpine and Saddleback (near Redfish), Scenic July 1 – Labor Day: NO off trail fires	Use only existing fire rings Fires must be 200 yards from the following lakes: Cirque, Cove, Sapphire, Sheep, Slide, Tin Cup, Gunsight, Castle, Chamberlin (9849)
SANITATION	Pack it in, Pack it out – all of it! Bury human waste 6-8 inches deep 100-200 feet from water Carry out toilet paper	Pack it in, Pack it out – all of it! Bury human waste 6-8 inches deep 100-200 feet from water Carry out toilet paper
ETIQUETTE	NO bicycles, motor vehicles, carts, aircraft	Certain areas allow mechanized recreation – reference map